

Civil and Family Court Fees

High Court, County Court and Family Proceedings Courts

From 1 July 2013

Important information

This leaflet sets out a selection of civil and family court fees. It is not the full list, neither is it the authority on fees.

The full lists of all court fees are contained in Statutory Instruments (SI's) known as fees orders and can be found online at www.justice.gov.uk/guidance/courts-and-tribunals/courts/fees

The court fees set out in this leaflet apply to, and are the same in, both the High Court, county court and Family Proceedings Courts, unless otherwise stated. Your local court will be able to help you identify any fee not contained in this leaflet.

Time for payment of fees

Court fees are payable at the time you file any document or commence any process requiring a fee, unless otherwise stated.

Methods of payment

Courts accept payment by debit or credit cards, cash, postal orders or cheques, which should be made payable to 'HM Courts & Tribunals Service'. If you pay by cheque and it is dishonoured, the court will take steps to recover the money. Non-payment will result in your case being stayed or even struck out.

You can pay by debit or credit card if you use either of the online services.

What if I cannot afford to pay a court fee?

If you cannot afford the fee, you may be eligible for a fee remission in full or in part. The combined booklet and application form EX160A - Court and Tribunal fees - Do I have to pay them? gives all the information you need. You can get a copy from any court office or online at hmctsformfinder.justice.gov.uk

Online services

HM Courts & Tribunals Service has two internet based services: Money Claim Online (MCOL) for any money claim up to the value of £99,999.99, and Possession Claim Online (PCOL) for possessions concerning rent or mortgage arrears. You can use either of these simple, convenient and secure processes and pay a reduced fee.

For more information ask court staff or visit our websites:

- High Court £465
- County court £175
- Possession Claims Online (PCOL) £100

(PCOL can only be used for possessions concerning rent or mortgage arrears).

Certain non-money claims will attract the multi-track allocation, pre-trial checklist and hearing fees, set out on page 5 and 6. Check with the court to see if your case is affected.

Counterclaims

- Money claims - the court fee payable (set out on page 3) is based on the value of the counterclaim and where the original claim was issued. If the original claim was issued in a court, the court issue fee applies. If the claim was issued through MCOL or the County Court Bulk Centre, the reduced MCOL fees apply.
- Non-money claims - the court fee payable is based on where the original claim was made, either in the High Court or county court. The court fees are set out above.

Costs proceedings

For court fees relating to the issue of costs only or cost assessment proceedings, go to pages 9 and 10.

General fees for civil proceedings

The fees on page 5 and 6 are payable by the claimant. Where a case proceeds on a counterclaim alone, the fees are payable by the defendant.

Allocation to track

- Small claims track (where the claim is more than £1,500). £40
No fee payable for small claims £1,500 and under.
- Fast track and multi track claims. £220

The fee is paid at the same time the directions questionnaire is filed. If directions questionnaires are not required, the fee must be paid within 28 days (whichever is the sooner) of:

- all defences being filed; or
- the last date all defences had to be filed.

The allocation fee is based on the track you specify in the directions questionnaire. If your case is allocated to a different track than the one specified, a higher fee will be payable. Where the track attracts a lower fee than the one you have paid, you can apply to the court for a refund of the difference.

Pre-trial checklist and hearing fees

Small Claim Track where the amount claimed is:	Hearing fee
up to £300	£25
between £300.01 and £500	£55
between £500.01 and £1,000	£80
between £1,000.01 and £1,500	£110
between £1,500.01 and £3,000	£165
more than £3,000	£325

	Pre-trial checklist	Hearing fee
Fast track claim	£110	£545
Multi track claim	£110	£1,090

Both fees must be paid at the same time the pre-trial checklist is filed. If pre-trial checklists are not required, or the case is on the small claims track, the fees must be paid within 14 days of:

- the despatch of the notice of the trial date or trial week; or
- the date when you are told the trial date or trial week, if no written notice is given.

Warning: If you do not pay the allocation, pre-trial checklist or hearing fees when required, the court can make an order which may lead to your claim, counterclaim or defence being struck out. This means you cannot continue with your claim or counterclaim.

Refunding hearing fees

Small claim hearing

You could get a full refund of the hearing fee if you notify the court in writing, at least seven clear calender days before the trial date or start of the trial week, that the case is settled or discontinued.

Fast track, multi track or non-money claim hearing

You could get a refund of some or all of the hearing fee if you notify the court in writing that the case is settled or discontinued. The following amounts will be refunded where the court is notified:

- more than 28 days before the hearing, 100% of fee;
- between 28 and 15 days before the hearing, 75% of fee;
