New forum for Deputies

Bedson and Chard, a firm of Law Cost Draftsmen in Basingstoke, have recently launched what they believe is the only forum for Court of Protection Deputies. It has been designed to enable Deputies to exchange views, ask questions and post answers to common problems encountered in the running of Protected Parties' deputyships. You can find it on this link: <http://www.bedsonandchard.com/forum/>. They also plan to develop forums for other specialities too.
